Collect

God of all mercy,
your Son proclaimed good news to the poor,
release to the captives,
and freedom to the oppressed:
anoint us with your Holy Spirit and set all your people free to praise you in Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Post Communion

Almighty Father,
whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world:
may your people,
illuminated by your word and sacraments,
shine with the radiance of his glory,
that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed
to the ends of the earth;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.
Amen

Notices

Calling all knitters!

Thank you to everyone who knitted rectangles for the Bind us Together Tree. It is now time to sew them together to make the blankets. We will be meeting at 2pm on Tuesday 24th and 31st January 2023 to start to piece together the blankets. All welcome to attend. Jon will be providing the tea and biscuits!

Sunday School

Sunday School will be starting again on Sunday 12th February 2023. We will be changing the format slightly and the children will gather in Church for the beginning of the service and then go for Sunday School in the Ringing Chamber in Church for activities then returning to the service for the Eucharistic Prayer. We are making this alteration in the format to show that the children are equal and valued members of the worshipping community here at St Martins.

Sunday 29th January at 3.30pm

Come and join Jon for an informal worship/discussion looking at one or two passages from the Bible whilst enjoying a cup of tea and a slice of cake.

Lunch on the Last Sunday in the Month

A number of folk linked to St Martin's are by themselves for lunch on Sundays - sometimes this is okay, but sometimes it would be enjoyable to eat with others. If that is you then there is an opportunity to join with others on the last Sunday in the month.

At the end of this month, Sunday 29th, we will be going to the Summer House where we can choose between the carvery or the menu.

If you would like to join us then please sign the list on the communications board no later than the Thursday before.

Any queries, etc please speak to Yvonne
